

For programming with Friends Center staff, contact the staff directly – or call or write the Friends Center Office: 336-316-2445, mcarter@guilford.edu or Guilford College, 5800 W. Friendly Ave., Greensboro, NC 27410.

While Friends Center staff do not request an honorarium for typical service, travel expenses are appreciated. Contributions to the ministry of Friends Center at Guilford College are always gratefully accepted.

We look forward to being of service!

“I am not usually the kind of person who enjoys lectures; however, Max’s love of the subject, knowledge, and humor made me realize why people go to lectures just for fun. Thank you for bringing him to Haverford.”

- Haverford College student, 2008

“Frank Massey’s centered presence is the core of his leadership in spiritual formation groups, discernment processes, discussion groups, and other activities. He listens with kindness, observes keenly, and speaks from depth and authenticity.”

- Kathleen M. Coe, Friends minister

“Visits to our Friends meeting by Guilford students keep us from becoming too satisfied with our own small opinions. The QLSP students come from a wide variety of backgrounds, and as young persons in an exploratory phase of life, they challenge us to consider new ideas and differing perspectives, stretching us in good ways.”

- Jean Vollrath, Spring Friends Meeting (NCYM-FUM)

“When we left Pendle Hill after a retreat on Thomas Kelly led by Deborah Shaw, each of us knew we had been in the presence of the Lord, and that Deborah’s ministry had been favored.”

- Tommie Gipson

Friends Center is a collaborative endeavor of the college and the Religious Society of Friends to strengthen Friends and their institutions. For more information about Friends Center, go to the Friends Center site on the Guilford College Web: www.guilford.edu or call 336-316-2445 (e-mail: mcarter@guilford.edu).

“Sharing Our Offerings”

Programming available from Friends Center Staff

Guilford College
5800 W. Friendly Avenue
Greensboro, NC 27410
336-316-2445 • mcarter@guilford.edu

Friends Center at Guilford College, a collaborative office of the college and the wider community of Friends, welcomes inquiries about sharing our programming opportunities.

Listed in this brochure are the names and contact information of Friends Center staff and the topics they can address in programs with Friends meetings and other Quaker groups, civic clubs, retirement communities, schools, and other organizations.

We welcome your contact!

Program Offerings from the Staff of Friends Center at Guilford College

Max Carter
Director of Friends Center
 336-316-2445
 mcarter@guilford.edu

Early Quaker history;
 Carolina Quaker history
 WWJWD – “What would John Woolman do?”
 Stories of the Underground Railroad
 Allen Jay, Mary Mendenhall Hobbs, and the transformation of Carolina Quakerism
 The Amish
 Quakers in Israel and Palestine
 Intentional communities
 What are we hearing from young adult Quakers?
 Campus historical tours for groups
 Quaker testimonies
 Quakers in business, industry, and reform
 Diversity among Friends – “the Quaker meetinghouse slide show”

Deborah Shaw
Assistant Director of Friends Center
 336-316-2326
 dsshaw@guilford.edu

Clearness committee work
 Journaling

Retreats
 Spiritual practice
 Lessons from Thomas Kelly
 Taize worship

Frank Massey
Gifts Discernment Coordinator
 336-316-2872
 fmassey@guilford.edu

Quaker spirituality
 Quaker history
 The Quaker peace testimony;
 nonviolence;
 conscientious objection
 Spiritual formation
 Meetings for healing
 Spiritual healing in the manner of Friends
 Working with our angels
 Earthcare

Scott Pierce Coleman
Director of the Quaker Leadership Scholars Program 336-316-2331
 scoleman@guilford.edu

Working with and providing student speakers for meetings and youth groups
 Organizing student service days at meetings
 Workshops on gifts and vocational discernment
 Workshops on clearness committees
 Talks on spiritual development of Quaker youth
 Talks on authority among Friends
 Talks on finding the balance between compassion and judgment
 Talks on substance use and Quaker testimony