

Mark Hulbert
and
Charlotte Roberts

*Two of the J.M. Ward
Distinguished Quaker
Visitors for the September 20-21
“Quakers in Business”
Symposium*

*All events are in New Garden Friends
Meeting except College Meeting for Worship*

Sunday, September 20

- 1 p.m. College Meeting for Worship, led by Samuel Caldwell. Moon Room.
- 2:15 Interest group, “Entrepreneurial Stories.”
- 4:00 Interest group, “Principled Business.”
- 7:30 Panel, “Topics on the Current Economy.”

Monday, September 21

- 10 a.m. Interest group, “Quakers, Leadership, and Doing Business.”
- 4 p.m. Interest group, “Doing Business in the Global Economy.”
- 7:30 Closing panel, “Reflections on the Symposium.”

Participants in the Symposium:

- Walter Blass, International business consultant; former director of strategic planning for AT&T
- Samuel Caldwell, President and CEO, The Planned Giving Company
- David Edgerton, Retired textile company executive
- Mark Hulbert, Founder and editor, The Hulbert Financial Digest
- Carole Hunter, Founder, Industrial Biomechanics, Inc.
- Mark Myers, Retired Vice President of Xerox
- Charlotte Roberts, Executive consultant, motivational speaker
- Martha Summerville, President, Summerville Consulting LLC
- Gary York, Business entrepreneur: York Oil, Neighbors Stores, GTY Trucking, WIFM Radio

Anne Morrison Welsh

*Judith Weller Harvey
Quaker Scholar
November 8 - 10*

Monday, November 9
7:30 p.m.
“Being Held in the Light”
Joseph M. Bryan, Jr.
Auditorium

Anne Morrison Welsh is the author (with Joyce Hollyday) of Held in the Light: Norman Morrison’s Sacrifice for Peace and His Family’s Journey of Healing, the story of her husband’s self-immolation on the steps of the Pentagon in 1965 in protest of the American War in Vietnam. Since his death, Anne raised their children, re-married, directed the Rural Southern Voice for Peace in western North Carolina, and made a pilgrimage of healing to Vietnam.

Jonathan
Wilson-Hartgrove

*New Monasticism
book study
kick-off guest*

Friday, September 11
12 Noon
The Hut

Jonathan Wilson-Hartgrove is the author of New Monasticism, a book about embracing the lifestyle prescribed by Jesus as a realistic possibility in our present age. He is a founder of the Rutba Community in Durham and is a graduate of Duke Divinity School.

Vanessa Julye

*Luby Casey Campus
Ministry Visitor
January 24-26*

Monday, January 25
7:30 p.m.
“Lessons from Fit for Freedom, Not for Friendship”

New Garden Friends Meeting,
801 New Garden Road

Vanessa Julye is the Coordinator of the Committee for Ministry on Racism for Friends General Conference and the co-author (with Donna McDaniel) of Fit for Freedom, Not for Friendship: Quakers, African-Americans and the Myth of Racial Justice.

A member of Central Philadelphia Monthly Meeting and graduate of Westtown and Temple University, Vanessa travels in the ministry with a special concern for helping the Religious Society of Friends become a whole blessed community.

*All programs are free (except
QRP and the Summer Work
Trip) and open to the public.
For updated information,
call 336-316-2445 or visit the Friends Center Web page at www.guilford.edu.*

Additional speakers and special programs of Friends Center, 2009-10

Quaker Renewal Program study of Fit for Freedom, Not for Friendship (with New Garden Friends Meeting). Thursday nights, September 3 - October 8.

One Voice, Israeli and Palestinian youth working for understanding. September 14.

New Monasticism book study. Sept. 15, 22, 29.

Quaker Festival Week. September 20-27.

Fall break service trip with N.C. Friends Disaster Service. October 18-23.

Take Back Your Time Week. October 25 - 31.

Stevie Westmoreland, daughter of Gen. William Westmoreland. November 10.

Sharon Kabalo, Israeli Deputy Consul General in Atlanta. November 16.

Religious Emphasis Week. January 24-30.

Spring break service trip with N.C. FDS. March 14 - 19.

FUM work/study trip to Israel and Palestine, coled by Max & Jane Carter, June 26 - July 11.

All programs are free and open to the public (except for QRP programs and the summer work/study trip). For updated information, call 336-316-2445 or visit the Friends Center Web page at www.guilford.edu.

Friends Center at Guilford College is a collaborative endeavor of the College and the Religious Society of Friends to strengthen Friends and their institutions.

As a Quaker resource center for the Southeast and beyond, Friends Center provides programs that nurture servant-leaders both at Guilford College and in the wider community. These activities are grounded in prayer, informed by Friends' faith and practice, nourished by worship and spiritual formation, and brought to fullness in Quaker community.

- from the Friends Center mission statement

Friends Center at Guilford College

...strengthening Friends and their institutions

Speakers and Special Programs 2009-10

Guilford College
5800 W. Friendly Avenue
Greensboro, NC 27410
336-316-2445 • mcarter@guilford.edu