

Guilford College Magazine is published by the Office of College Relations to inform alumni and friends of college news and activities.

In addition to Office of College Relations staff, planning for each issue of the magazine involves Office of Advancement staff, faculty and other staff of the college, students, alumni and friends. The Outreach and Communications Committee of the Alumni Association Board of Directors participates in planning and critique sessions.

Guilford College was chartered by the Religious Society of Friends in 1834 and opened as the co-educational New Garden Boarding School in 1837. It became a college in 1888 and today is a four-year liberal arts institution accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Guilford's mission is to provide a transformative, practical, and excellent liberal arts education that produces critical thinkers in an inclusive, diverse environment, guided by Quaker testimonies of community, equality, integrity, peace, and simplicity and emphasizing the creative problem solving skills, experience, enthusiasm, and international perspectives necessary to promote positive change in the world.

The college's core values are community, diversity, equality, excellence, integrity, justice and stewardship.
