GUILFORD FOOTBALL NOTES - NOVEMBER 7, 2009

Guilford vs. Catholic Series

The series between the two teams is tied at five wins apiece. The Cardinals won the first two meetings in 1999 and 2000 by a combined score of 100-40 before Guilford took a 32-23 road decision in 2001. After two straight losses, Guilford bounced back with four consecutive wins, before Catholic won last year, 49-34, in Greensboro. The 2005 contest in Washington, a 49-42 Quakers' win, featured an NCAA Division III-record 1,180 combined passing yards.

As the scores may indicate, games between the two teams typically yield high point totals. The teams have combined for 649 points in 10 games, an average of 64.9 points per game.

Keith Ricca passed for 530 yards and five touchdowns to help Catholic spoil Guilford's homecoming last year with a 49-34 victory. Josh Vogelbach passed for 274 yards and three scores for the Quakers. He also set the NCAA Division III career passing yardage record. Andrew Buis had nine catches for 172 yards and three touchdowns. Guilford's Justin Parker ran for a game-high 113 yards and two scores.

Last Time Out

Junior quarterback Billy Watkins completed 35-of-52 passes for 378 yards and two touchdowns in Guilford's 20-13 ODAC win over visiting Randolph-Macon last Saturday.

Watkins also ran for 23 yards on Guilford's final drive of the game, which extinguished the final 3:58 after Randolph-Macon pulled to within 20-13.

Guilford's defense held the Yellow Jackets to 247 total offensive yards in one of its best efforts of the season. The Quakers held the Yellow Jackets to three first downs on 15 third-down plays. Randolph-Macon entered the game having converted a league-high 41.3% of its third downs.

Watkins spread the ball around evenly to five different receivers with no interceptions in his finest game. He hooked up with rookie Mike Williams for a 61-yard score early in the second quarter and found senior Jon McKinney from 41 yards out for a key third-quarter touchdown. Guilford's Tyler Hasty led all receivers with a career-high nine catches for 71 yards. Teammate Justin Parker had eight grabs for 88 yards.

Guilford's Richie Paul paced the defense with his second-straight 18-tackle performance, matching his career high. The senior linebacker had 10 solo tackles, including a sack, and also broke up a pass. Jordan Dutton finished with a career-high seven stops, including 2.5 behind the line.

Scouting the Quakers

Guilford opened the season with four straight losses before posting a 48-6 victory over Southern Virginia University Oct. 2. Narrow losses at Greensboro College and Methodist University in the first two weeks took their toll on team morale and health. The Quakers failed to score a touchdown in back-to-back home losses to Averett University and Hampden-Sydney College before breaking out versus Southern Virginia.

Following a bye week, Guilford returned to ODAC play with consecutive losses to Bridgewater College and Washington and Lee University. The Quakers snapped a six-game ODAC slide dating to last season with an impressive 20-13 win over Randolph-Macon.

The Quakers field an inexperienced squad in 2009 as evidenced by the 12 freshmen and sophomores who made their first college starts in the 2009 season opener. Today's depth chart lists 15 first- or second-year students among Guilford's probable starters, including specialists. Injuries have taken their toll on the Quakers as 15 students are now out for the year due to injury, including starting running back/kick returner Thomas Kicinski and number-two quarterback Luke Vandall.

The injuries to Kicinski and Vandall hampered Guilford's plan to revamp its offense following the graduation of four-year starting quarterback Josh Vogelbach '08, a two-time First Team All-ODAC performer who left with 17 NCAA Division III career passing records, including career yards (13,605). Most of his favorite targets also left, including Kevin Vaughn '09, who earned Third Team D3football.com All-America honors in his senior season and ranked among the national receiving yards per game leaders.

Guilford installed an option offense during the off-season and used it to start the year, but injuries in the backfield slowed its progress. The Quakers have since returned to the multiple-formation spread offense that produced one of Division III's most potent attacks in recent years. The Quakers hope the change increases offensive production, which ranks 200th among 235 Division III teams with 16.65 points per game.

Junior quarterback Billy Watkins saw limited time as Vogelbach's understudy, but won the starting job during preseason camp and now is the only true quarterback on the active roster. He has shown steady improvement in recent weeks and last week set career records for completions (35), attempts (52) and yards (378). Watkins passed for two scores and no interceptions in the league win over Randolph-Macon. Over his last four games, Watkins has completed over 64 percent of his passes over the past four games for 1,000 yards with four touchdowns and one interception.

With Vandall was lost with a season-ending foot injury and rookie Chris Winiecki out with a head injury, freshman Brandon Thompson has moved from receiver to quarterback in recent weeks. Red-shirt-junior Justin Parker also has signalling experience.

Parker is the Quakers' top offensive weapon. He has returned kicks and lined up at running back and quarterback this year, but with the return to the spread offense, the Greensboro native has become Guilford's top receiver. Speedy rookie Mike Williams averages 5.3 yards per carry for the year and has averaged over 71 rushing yards per game over his last four outings.

While the offense has struggled at times, Guilford's defense has played reasonably well for the most part. The Quakers rank fourth among the ODAC leaders in total defense (323.8 yards per game) and second in pass defense efficiency. Guilford boasts the league's leading tackler in senior linebacker Richie Paul, who stands third nationally with 13.6 stops per game. An athletic secondary has allowed the Quakers to use a lot of pressure and blitzes. Sophomore safety Trey Billian, a converted receiver in his first defensive season, ranks 11th among ODAC tacklers per game leaders.

Two newcomers handle the bulk of the Quakers' kicking duties. Rookie Brad Scott has shown a strong leg in his first year with four field goals and averages a league-high 65 yards per kickoff. Sophomore D.J. Wilson took over for Billian as the starting punter in week three and ranks fourth in the ODAC with a 36.2 yards per kick average.

Paul Lands Weekly Honors

Senior linebacker Richie Paul collected his first ODAC Defensive Player of the Week Award and his first Guilford College Student-Athlete of the Week prize last Monday. Paul made a game- and career-high 18 tackles for the second straight week in the Quakers' 20-13 win over Randolph-Macon. He had 10 stops in the game, along with a sack among two tackles for loss.

Paul leads the ODAC with 13.6 tackles per game, NCAA Division III's third-highest average. He has paced Guilford's tacklers in all eight contests and collected the Quakers' game MVP honor for his nine-tackle performance against Greensboro College in the season opener. Paul has made at least 10 takedowns in each of the last seven outings, including a career-high 18 stops on consecutive weeks versus Washington and Lee and Randolph-Macon.

Paul is one of 90 seniors selected to play in the inaugural D-III Football Classic. The showcase weekend includes a North-South All-Star Game Dec. 5 in Salem, Va.

Paul has 109 tackles, including 10 behind the line of scrimmage, and three sacks. He ranks fourth in the league in tackles for loss per game (1.25) and eighth in sacks per game (0.38). Paul and sophomore teammates Trey Billian (11th) and Chris Jessup (13th) place among the ODAC's top-13 tacklers.

"Pinky" Nelson Wins ODAC Prize

After tying the school record with three interceptions against Southern Virginia Oct. 2, cornerback Jordan Nelson collected the Quakers' first ODAC Defensive Player of the Week Award. He also had two tackles and a pass breakup in the game, which Guilford won, 48-6. Two of Nelson's interceptions set up Quakers' touchdowns.

Throughout his career, Nelson has been a key kickoff returner and 2009 is no exception as the junior ranks seventh in the ODAC with a 19.7-yard per return average. However, he earned more playing time in the secondary this fall and with an injury to rookie Quan Parker, Nelson has filled in admirably as a starting cornerback. He enjoyed perhaps the finest defensive game of the year versus Hampden-Sydney with a personal-best eight tackles and his first career interception.

Nelson wore pink socks and pink wristbands during the month of October as personal statements to promote breast cancer awareness. October is the national Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

Parker Climbs Guilford Rushing Charts

Justin Parker has moved into a share of ninth place among Guilford's career rushing leaders. The redshirt junior has 1,302 yards on 264 carries in his two-plus seasons. He shares the position with Charlie Heard '84 and needs 146 yards to pass Johnny Hines '88 for eighth place.

Parker set the Quakers' school record with 10 rushing touchdowns in 2008 and has 15 scores on the ground in his career. He ranks fourth among Guilford's career rushing touchdowns leaders and needs four more scores to set the record.

Newcomers Bolster Kicking Game

Freshman Brad Scott beat out senior Hunter Chappell and classmate Corey Sackrison for the starting place-kicker's job and has been one of Guilford's most prolific scorers. He has six field goals with a long of 40. Scott also handles the Quakers' kickoffs and averages a league-high 65.0 yards per kickoff.

Sophomore D.J. Wilson took over the punting duties from classmate Trey Billian in week three and averages 36.2 yards per kick, the league's third-highest figure. His 71-yard boot against Hampden-Sydney is the second-longest kick in school history.

Watch Out For Williams

Opposing defense need should be on the lookout for speedy freshman running back Mike Williams. The rookie from Mebane, N.C., enjoyed a career-long 181-yard effort against Southern Virginia, the most rushing yards by a Quakers' back since Marcus Ballard had 182 yards versus Greensboro in 2000. Williams averaged 8.6 yards per carry and scored on a 77-yard run versus the Knights, the longest since Ballard's 81-yard scoring jaunt against Greensboro.

Williams ranks seventh among league leaders with 58.6 rushing yards per game. He showed pass-catching skills versus Randolph-Macon with a career-high seven grabs for 94 yards, including his first college touchdown reception.

Taking Care of the Ball

Turnovers have plagued Guilford in recent seasons and contributed heavily to three of the team's losses in 2009. The Quakers recorded a +4 turnover rating at Methodist behind a strong defensive effort that forced two miscues inside the Monarchs' 20-yard line. Both turnovers led to Guilford scores and the Quakers' best turnover rating since a +5 at Catholic Nov. 4, 2006. Guilford did not turn the ball over in the Methodist contest, ending a streak of 22 straight games with at least one turnover. The Quakers were also turnover free at Bridgewater and had only one turnover in the win over Randolph-Macon.

The Soup Bowl Cup Stays At Guilford

While Greensboro College regained the Soup Bowl trophy, presented to the winner of the annual crosstown Division III football rivalry, Guilford maintained possession of the Soup Bowl Cup. The Soup Bowl Cup goes to the school that collects the most food in the canned food drive held in conjunction with the game. Guilford students and fans brought in over 3,800 foodstuffs compared to Greensboro's approximately 2,200 items. Guilford's food service provider, Meriwether Godsey, will double Guilford's contributions, which means local food banks will receive nearly 10,000 items at a critical time.

Kicinski Lost For The Season

Senior running back and kick returner Thomas Kicinski saw his season come to a close following the Averett game due to a hip injury. He has been one of the Quakers' top kick returners in each of his four seasons and had an increased role at running back in 2009. He ranks seventh among Guilford's career punt return yardage leaders and ninth in career kickoff return yards.

Kicinski's injury further depletes the Quakers' backfield, which also lost number-two quarterback Luke Vandall to a season-ending foot injury in the season-opening game with Greensboro.

Injury Report

Looking Ahead

The Quakers wrap up the season at home next Saturday versus league-rival Emory & Henry College. Senior Day in the Armfield Athletic Center begins at 1:00 p.m. Emory & Henry started the year with four straight wins before dropping three of its last four. The Wasps took a 5-3 overall record (1-3 ODAC) into today's game versus visiting Washington and Lee.

Guilford plays six of its final eight games on the new Field Turf artificial surface installed this summer.

Head Coach Kevin Kiesel

Kevin Kiesel took over as Guilford College's 22nd head football coach in March 2005, and ranks fifth among the Quakers' career football wins leaders with a 23-25 record. His 2006 and 2007 teams both went 6-4 for Guilford's first consecutive winning campaigns since 1990-91. The Quakers have shattered 36 school records and 13 league marks in Kiesel's first four seasons. Guilford has led NCAA Division III in passing yards per game twice in the past three years and typically boasts one of the nation's top-rated offenses. Quarterback Josh Vogelbach '08 set 17 NCAA Division III passing marks under Kiesel, including career passing yards. He is one of 13 Guilford students who have combined for 19 all-conference commendations in the past four years.

Kiesel has an 87-84-1 career record and 16 years of head football coaching experience. Before joining the Quakers, the 1981 Gettysburg graduate spent four seasons directing NCAA Division II Millersville. He made his head coaching debut in 1993 at Albright where the Lions went 15-15-1 in three seasons, including 8-3 in 1995. Albright won the 1995 Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Division III Southwest title.

Fairfield made Kiesel its first head football coach when it started the sport in 1996. He shaped the NCAA Division I-AA non-scholarship Stags into one of the top programs of its kind. Fairfield won the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference title in 1998, its third year of existence, and Kiesel captured the league's Coach of the Year Award.

A Scranton, Pa., native, Kiesel grew up in King of Prussia, Pa. He and his wife, Annette, have three school-age children: Julianne, Eddie and Bobby.

Quakers Picked Fifth in the ODAC

Old Dominion Athletic Conference head football coaches tabbed Guilford seventh in their annual preseason poll this year. Hampden-Sydney College earned two of seven first-place votes and the top spot in the poll. Emory & Henry College and Bridgewater College also earned two top votes and are separated by just two points for second place in the poll. Randolph-Macon College took the final first-place vote and was picked fourth, ahead of Catholic University of America and Washington and Lee University.

Guilford last won the ODAC title in 1997 when it shared the honor with Randolph-Macon and Emory & Henry. The Quakers won their first league crown outright in 1991, their first year of league membership.
