

Saturday, August 22

9 a.m. - 3 p.m. Advising (in faculty offices)

**mandatory**

10 a.m. - Noon Involvement Fair (Founders Lawn)

The Involvement Fair brings together groups on campus that allow students to get involved in a big way. Residence Life staff, Admission Tour Guides, CHAOS leaders, Campus Activities Board, the Guilfordian and others will be available to talk about the ways in which new students can join in, starting small or jumping into leadership roles.

1-3 p.m. Transfer Student Ice Cream Social & Mixer (Gilmer Room, in the Dining Hall)

1 - 3 p.m. Friend Finders in Milner Lounge

(make-your-own door stops)

1 - 2 p.m. Mirror Me: An Exploration of Identities (King 126)

**mandatory**

2 - 3 p.m. Mirror Me: An Exploration of Identities (King 126)

**mandatory**

3:15 p.m. First Year Class Photo (Armfield Athletic Center)

7 - 7:45 p.m. Small group session

**mandatory**

9 p.m. - 1 a.m. Carnival (New Garden Lawn) sponsored by Late Night Programming
Step out in carnival style the first night that returning students are back! A ferris wheel, putt putt golf, carnival games (and prizes!), Guilford College's first annual Pizza Wars and more will be set up for the new class to get to know the old guard.

Sunday, August 23

11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. Tailgate (near football field)

Celebrate the first football scrimmage of the year with barbeque and lemonade at the CHAOS tailgate. Held between the football and baseball fields, this is a good chance to relax and meet more people, as well as check out this year's football talent.

1 - 3 p.m. Football Maroon & White Scrimmage (Armfield Athletic Center)

2 - 4 p.m. Hall Olympics & Intramurals (Baseball Field)

The Intramurals coordinators have put together the 2nd annual Hall Olympics. Represent your hall (the more residents who come out, the more likely your hall is to come out on top!). Participate in over-under, tug of war, dizzybat, sack races and various other events. Last year's victor was Milner Hall ... will they be able to keep their title?

3 - 4 p.m. Mirror Me: An Exploration of Identities (King 123)

**mandatory**

4 - 5 p.m. Mirror Me: An Exploration of Identities (King 123)

**mandatory**

4 - 5 p.m. Pizza with Profs (New Garden Lawn)

As the week winds down, the time for beginning your academic career at Guilford has arrived. Your FYE 101 and 102 instructors will be some of your best resources during your first few weeks. Come meet your instructors and others over pizza and drinks and get ready to start classes tomorrow!

4:30 p.m. Men's Soccer Red/White Scrimmage (Armfield Athletic Center)

8 - 9:30 p.m. The Idiot Box Improv Comedy Troupe (Dana Auditorium)

In the same vein as "Whose Line Is It Anyway?", the Idiot Box improv comedy group will make you laugh, get you involved and hopefully lighten up your last evening before classes start. Come out with your classmates and returning students for a great show!

Schedule of Events

Dining Hall Hours

Monday-Friday: Breakfast 8-10 a.m., Lunch: 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m., Dinner: 4-6:30 p.m.

Saturday & Sunday: Brunch: 10:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m., Dinner: 4-6:30 p.m.

Wednesday, August 19

8 a.m. - 2 p.m. Check In (Sternberger Auditorium)

7:30 a.m. - 1 p.m. All Fall Athletes: Training Room (see coach for team schedules)

3:30 - 4:30 p.m. Campus Welcome (Dana Auditorium) **mandatory**
Join other students and their families as President Kent Chabotar addresses the first year class for the first time. Also hear from VP and Academic Dean Adrienne Israel, VP for Enrollment Randy Doss and Director of Public Safety Ron Stowe.

4:30 - 6 p.m. President's Reception (New Garden Lawn) rain location: Alumni Gym
Held on New Garden Lawn, this reception is a good way for you and your student to meet and mingle with staff, faculty and Guilford's President, Kent John Chabotar. There will be plenty of food and cool drinks after a long day of moving in, on what will most likely be a typical North Carolina August scorcher! All family is welcome.

8 - 9:30 p.m. Parent/Family Dessert Reception (New Garden Lawn)
New Student Programs, through the Office of Advancement, will hold an evening dessert reception for parents. Come, eat and socialize with other parents who are probably feeling the same way you are! This will be a good time to share experiences with other parents, and to find out about the resources we offer to parents to become involved in the Guilford community along with their students. This will be an adult only event, but all adult family is welcome.

8-9 p.m. Small group sessions (See nametag or poster on hall for locations) **mandatory**
Tonight will be your first small group. Meet your CHAOS leader and a group of other new students to make friends in a smaller setting, and to begin planning your group's addition to the Small Group Skit Night on Saturday.

9 - 10 p.m. Residence hall meetings (meet on your hall) **mandatory**

10-11:30 p.m. Movies/activities (Milner Lounge, Binford 2nd floor lounge & Founders Hall)
Even though it has been a long and exciting day, there is still an opportunity to meet some other students, relax for a while, snack and socialize with your new classmates. Check out your residence hall lounge, or head over to Founders Hall for a central location.

Thursday, August 20

FYE Classes which meet M/W: **mandatory**

8:30 - 10:30 a.m. FYE Class/CIRP

FYE Classes which meet T/F: **mandatory**

9:30 - 11:30 a.m. FYE Class/CIRP

Attend your first session of FYE this morning. Meet your professor, who will also be your advisor, become familiar with your class, make your advising appointment for the next couple of days, and participate in the College Interest Research Program survey, which tracks the demographics of incoming classes across the country. This is your first class session, so do not miss it.

9 - 10 a.m. Student Panel—Parent Programming (Dana Auditorium)

During this session you will have the opportunity to speak with current students about their experiences here at Guilford College. They should offer a frank, open view of what students on this campus face on a daily basis, how the Quaker testimonies play into life at Guilford, and what kind of support students may be looking for from their parents. Ask away... this is your opportunity to find out what your student's life at Guilford might be like!

10 - 11 a.m. Parent Small Groups (Dana Auditorium)

A unique view of the experience at Guilford comes directly from parents of current students. We will form small groups where new parents talk to parents of current students (and maybe their students as well) to get their perspective on being a Guilford parent.

11 a.m. - Noon Athletics Panel for Parents of Athletes (Bryan, Jr. Auditorium)

During this session you will have the opportunity to speak with athletics staff, including Tom Palombo, Athletic Director, about the student-athlete experience at Guilford. This session offers an opportunity to ask questions about your student's athletic schedule, details about the specific issues involved in being a student and an athlete, and many other topics.

11 a.m. - Noon Campus Services Open House

Learning Commons (Hege Library 2nd floor)
Student Health (Founders Basement)
Counseling (Founders Basement)
Financial Aid (New Garden basement)
Public Safety (Bauman Hall basement)

11:45 a.m. - 1 p.m. Transfer Luncheon/Info Session (Gilmer Room, in the Dining Hall)

Noon - 2:30 p.m. IT&S Training and Quantitative Literacy Testing **mandatory**

On Thursday and Friday students will get their login information in IT&S Training, and learn how to navigate the Guilford network. You will also do placement testing for the Quantitative Literacy requirement. Please bring a pencil and a calculator if you have one available. Times and locations are assigned individually, and spaces in those rooms are limited, so please attend the session assigned to you on the back of your name tag. If you require extended time for your testing, please contact Georgieann Bogdan at 336-316-2837 or bogdangh@guilford.edu.
