

Table of Contents

Guilford College Magazine

Fall 2003

Viewpoint 2

Psychology Professor Richie Zweigenhaft muses about the history of the communications concentration and his days as a disc jockey at WQFS.

Celebrating the Theatre Arts 14

Scott Parker '68, James Shields '00, Peter West '83 and Sarah Peterson '70 Nuland used the Guilford experience as a springboard to careers in theatre.

Focus on Psychology and Mental Health 18

James Butcher '60 is one of the foremost authorities on the Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory and Terri Salmons '93 Tobin has parlayed life experiences in caregiving to a career as a mental health advocate.

Banking Alums Helping Shape the New Wachovia 22

Five alumni from different eras are helping make the Wachovia-First Union merger work. Gary Thompson '68, Janice Hood '88 Habash, Spencer Hamrick '80, Paul Grube '82 and Jerry Enos '82 are profiled.

Galyon is State's Transportation Guru 27

Now 50 years after leaving Guilford, Doug Galyon '53 is among the state's leading transportation decision-makers.

Bald Eagles Return to Lake Brandt 29

Biology Professor Lynn Moseley is keeping a close eye on America's national emblem.

The Last Word 36

Megan Barolet-Fogarty '04 was inspired by a summer volunteer experience in Nicaragua.

Nuland

News 3

Arts & Events 8

Alumni Relations 10

Sports 12

Class Notes 30

Butcher

Galyon