

Table of Contents

Guilford College Magazine
Fall 2005

Viewpoint 2

E.F. Craven Professor of Religious Studies John Stoneburner says recipients of a Guilford education are prepared to make a difference in a world that desperately needs to be healed.

President's Report 14

President Kent Chabotar reviews the challenges and accomplishments of the 2004-05 academic year, which included adoption of The Strategic Plan for Guilford College 2005-2010: Creative Leadership for the 21st Century.

Serving the Lord 23

Kevin Taylor '87 is an openly gay freelance producer for Black Entertainment Television and Michael Fulp '05 is a registered Republican and birthright Quaker. Both pastor congregations with a heart-felt passion. Jay Marshall '85 is serving as dean of the Earlham School of Religion.

What Would Aristotle Do? 27

When asked to reflect on how Guilford teaches ethics, Aleksandra Babic '07, Assistant Professor of Philosophy Lisa McLeod, James Childress '62 and Shannon Craigo-Snell '92 all point to the college's intense process of self-discovery and community-building.

The Great Adventure 31

Amanda Hollinger '94 retraces a 14,000-mile cross country road trip that her grandmother and four other women made in the 1930s and finds the rare gift of spending time with family and friends on the open road.

The Last Word 48

Trustee Walter Blass finds Elizabeth Baltaro '03 living the college's core values as a Peace Corps volunteer in Sokal, Ukraine.

Philanthropy 4

News 6

Arts and Events 11

Sports 12

Alumni Relations 35

Honor Roll of Giving 36

Class Notes 38