

Table of Contents

Viewpoint 2

Ron Davidson '81 recalls the profound impact his experience as an adult student at Guilford has had on his life.

Our Time in History 9

The college has set a Guilford County higher education fundraising record with $56.3 million.

Following Their Bliss 13

One of the great advantages of the liberal arts education is its emphasis on finding your unique place in the world. Four alums found their bliss in the culinary arts.

To Challenge and Inspire 20

Carolyn Beard Whitlow provides the kind of classroom experience that continues the tradition of teaching excellence at Guilford. President Kent Chabotar says the need for critical thinkers has not changed.

Completing the Journey 23

Kim Forbes '03 is a wife, mother of three, grandmother, full-time employee and student government president. The adult education program is celebrating its 50th anniversary.

Making a Lasting Impression 28

Greg Jackson '74, the point guard on Guilford's national championship basketball team in 1973, is making community leadership his legacy.

The Dream Job 32

Adam Lucas '98, former editor of The Guilfordian, is publishing a magazine about Tar Heel sports.

The Last Word 44

Interim Vice President and Academic Dean Adrienne Israel says a liberal arts education equips students to be leaders in their chosen fields.

Guilford College Magazine Winter 2003

Around Campus 4

Alumni Relations 36

Class Notes 38

