Alma Mater and Recessional Guilford College Choir
Music by Austin Scott '43, Words by Russell Pope

Kindly light our founders kindled	Sacred mem'ries thru the archways	So our hearts and voices joining
Midst primeval oak and pine,	Of the swiftly passing years,	Echo Guilford's ancient fame.
Let thy radiance, truth revealing,	Still undimmed dear Alma Mater	Hallow'd be thine each endeavor.
Now upon our spirits shine.	Strengthen us, dispel our fears.	Hallow'd be fair Guilford's name.

Audience will please remain at their seats and refrain from blocking the aisles until all graduates have recessed.

Please join us for a reception on the Founders Lawn immediately following the ceremony, with music by the Gate City Jazz Trio featuring Sam Uhrlass. Refreshments will be served under the white tent.
In the event of rain, the reception will be in Founders Hall.

Bottled water provided by Pepsico. The Campus Bookstore is open until 1 p.m.

FEATURED SPEAKER & HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Martha S. Jones is a nationally recognized historian and author with deep family roots in Greensboro. At Johns Hopkins University, she teaches in the Department of History and the SNF Agora Institute and is the Society of Black Alumni Presidential Professor. Her latest book – The Trouble of Color: An American Family Memoir (2025) – recounts her family's encounters with race and color through the story of five generations, from rural Kentucky and small-town North Carolina to New York City and its suburbs. Martha's paternal grandfather, David Dallas Jones, was the president of Bennett College from 1926-55, and her father was born in Greensboro. Her grandmother, Susie Williams Jones, was recognized as one of the most prominent Black women in North Carolina in the book Hope and Dignity by Emily Herring Wilson, with photos by Susan Mullally, who taught and led Guilford's photography program from 1993-2000. Martha holds a Ph.D. in History from Columbia University and a J.D. from The City University of New York School of Law. In 2025, she was awarded a Guggenheim Fellowship as a member of the 100th class of Fellows and was elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

STUDENT SPEAKER

Jah Vivens '26 was born in New York and raised in Miami, Fla. He is a Business Administration major with a minor in Sociology and has been deeply involved in campus life and leadership. He served as Vice President of the African Caribbean Student Association, Marketing Chair for the Student Body Association, a Bonner Leader, and a member of the Quaker Leadership Scholars Program. He also worked as a Resident Advisor and served as the Primary Site Coordinator for the Quaker Cupboard, where he helped provide essential food and hygiene resources to hundreds of students. Jah chose Guilford for its strong sense of community and commitment to service, which aligned with his passion for leadership and giving back. After graduation, he plans to pursue a master's degree in Business Management and build a career in North Carolina, while continuing to create spaces that support and uplift others.

ALUMNI SPEAKER

Brenda Esch '83 graduated from Guilford College with a major in Religious Studies and a minor in English, and she received a master's in School Leadership from the University of Pennsylvania. She worked in Quaker schools as a teacher and as Head of School, most recently at Friends School of Wilmington (N.C.), and was delighted to return to Greensboro in 2024 when she was called to serve as pastoral minister at New Garden Friends Meeting. Brenda loves spending time outside and can often be seen on the Guilford campus walking her excellent dog, Bixby.
